We Make Your Business Our Business

Serving the Twin Cities and Greater Minnesota since 1961, we understand that dependable and experienced employees are the backbone of your business and the most critical component to success. Let Strom Minnesota demonstrate the difference of quality relationship building.

We know the Minnesota engineering and manufacturing industry better than any staffing chain or general staffing firm out there. With a deep roster of quality candidates ready for hire that can only be gained by being in the business as long as we have, Strom Minnesota can quickly connect you with top talent whether you need one or one thousand professionals for your workforce.

The Difference Is Impactful

- Spend less time searching & vetting candidates
- Eliminate paperwork, screening & testing hassles
- Operate leaner with decreased overhead
- Increase output capacity & productivity
- Seamlessly manage production cycles

“With regard to the mechanical designer who you provided to us as a temporary worker.
He was such a good fit for our firm that we have hired him as a permanent employee.
He has worked out very well for us and has become one of our dependable workers”
